4 Student's Situation (See Guide, pages 9 to 11.)

A. Marital status

The information provided in this subsection will enable us to determine if you meet the criteria to be considered a self-supporting student based on your marital status and whether or not you must have the 2008-2009 Declaration of Spouse form filled out.

Check the box corresponding to your current marital status. If you consider yourself a de facto spouse, see page 9 of the Guide to find out which box to check.

- Single
- Civil union spouse (Have the 2008-2009 Declaration of Spouse form filled out.) 8
- Married (Have the 2008-2009 Declaration of Spouse form filled out.) 9
- Widowed 10
- De facto separated (See Guide, page 9.) 11
- Legally separated 12
- Divorced 13

Enter the date on which this marital status became effective (unless you are single) .....  Y  M  D

E. Self-supporting student (based on time spent in the labour market)

If you are married, in a civil union, divorced, de facto separated or widowed, or if you are single and have checked one of the situations in subsections C and D, go directly to subsection F.

1. I have been in one of the following situations for a total period of at least 24 months, without ever studying full-time during this period. 25
  - I have held a paid job or have received employment insurance or income replacement benefits while living with my parents, sponsor or elsewhere.
  - I have supported myself while living elsewhere than with my parents or sponsor.
  - I have been in both of the above situations.
2.  I have not studied full-time for at least seven years (consecutive or not). 26

F. Exceptional family situation

If none of the statements in subsections C, D and E apply to you, check all of the following statements that apply to you. If none of these situations apply to you, go directly to subsection G. If you are a Canadian citizen by birth, go to question 2 below.

1. I am a naturalized Canadian citizen, a permanent resident or a refugee (within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act) and one of the following situations applies to me:
  - My parents do not reside in Canada. 27
  - My spouse does not reside in Canada. 27
2. I am single and one of the following situations applies to me:
  - 2.1  I have been placed in a foster home. 28
  - 2.2  My parents or my sponsor is living in a special care home. (See Guide, page 11.) 28
  - 2.3  I have been placed in the custody of a guardian. 28
  - 2.4  My parents or my sponsor cannot be located. 28
  - 2.5  I am or will be living in a halfway house in 2008-2009. (See Guide, page 11.) 28
  - 2.6  My family situation has deteriorated and confirmation of this situation has been provided by an authorized person. (See Guide, page 11.) 28
  - 2.7  I receive support payments from my parents in accordance with a court judgment. 29
3.  My spouse cannot be located. 28

G. Student with a parental contribution

If you are single and none of the statements in subsections C, D, E and F apply to you, you will be considered a student with a parental contribution. Similarly, in subsection F.2, if you checked box 2.2, 2.5 or 2.6, you will be considered a student with a parental contribution.

You must therefore have the 2008-2009 Declaration of Father form or the 2008-2009 Declaration of Mother form, or both, filled out. Check the box that applies to your situation and have the appropriate form(s) filled out.

1. If your parents are living together, check this box.
(Have your father fill out the 2008-2009 Declaration of Father form AND your mother the 2008-2009 Declaration of Mother form.)
2. If your parents are divorced, legally separated or de facto separated, or if one of your parents is deceased, indicate with whom you now reside or last resided.
  - Your mother (Have her fill out the 2008-2009 Declaration of Mother form.)

Loan: $2 440
Bursary: $4 312
Total: $6 752

The statement also provides a breakdown of the monthly or periodic installments.

Step 2

At the beginning of her studies, Julia's educational institution sends her a Guarantee Certificate. After submitting this document to her financial institution, a first installment is deposited into her bank account via an electronic funds transfer.

September
Form required

Julia must complete the Confirmation of Financial Resources form to update or confirm the income she declared. In this way, she avoids receiving a bursary overpayment. Going on-line is fast and easy!

Loan-to-bursary conversion

After contacting Revenu Québec to verify the accuracy of Julia's reported income, Aide financière aux études pays her financial institution an amount equivalent to the bursary to which she is entitled (in this case $4 312). As a result, Julia's student loan debt is reduced.

Loan: $2 440

Total: $6 752

Aide financière aux études then sends Julia a notice informing her of the amount that has been converted into a bursary.

How to Apply for Financial Assistance

You may apply for financial assistance by filling out the print form provided in this Guide or available through the financial assistance office of your educational institution. You can also fill out the Aide financière aux études (AFE) on-line application form at www.afe.gouv.qc.ca. Over 90% of our clients use our on-line services. It's a fast, easy and secure way of applying for financial assistance.

If this is not your first application for financial assistance, you may use the personalized form located on AFE's Web site under On-Line Access to Your File! In order to facilitate the application procedure, AFE has already filled out part of the form using the information in your file.

How to Proceed Once Your Form Is Sent

The financial assistance to which you may be entitled will be assessed upon receipt of your form and required documents. A Financial Assistance Statement will be generated, informing you of the total amount of financial assistance (loan and bursary, if any) to which you are entitled. It will also give the breakdown of the monthly or periodic installments you will receive. If you have provided an e-mail address, AFE will send you a message informing you where to find your Financial Assistance Statement on the Web site. If you did not provide an e-mail address, you will receive your statement by mail.

If you are filing your first application for financial assistance, you must pick up your Guarantee Certificate from the financial assistance office of your educational institution. This document will be given to you at the beginning of your first study period. You should submit your certificate to your financial institution as soon as possible so that the financial assistance awarded to you may be deposited directly into your bank account.

If you are filing a subsequent application for financial assistance, you will not be required to pick up a new Guarantee Certificate, since certificates are issued only once, at the beginning of your studies. Once the amount of assistance to which you are entitled has been assessed, the installments will be deposited directly into your account. However, if you interrupt your studies for a period exceeding six months, you will require a new certificate that you can obtain from the financial assistance office of your educational institution.

In addition, you must fill out a Confirmation of Financial Resources form in September and January in order to update or confirm the income you reported in your application for financial assistance. If you fail to do so, payment of your assistance will be suspended. The Confirmation of Financial Resources form is available on AFE's Web site under On-Line Access to Your File!

What You Need to Know Before You Begin

Eligibility requirements

You qualify for the Loans and Bursaries Program provided you meet the following requirements:

- You are a Canadian citizen, or a permanent resident, refugee or protected person within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act.
- You are a Québec resident or are deemed a Québec resident at the time of your application.
- You have been admitted to a recognized educational institution and
  - you are pursuing full-time studies in a recognized program.
  - or
  - you are deemed to be pursuing full-time studies in a recognized program.
- You have not exceeded the maximum number of months of study for which financial assistance may be granted.
- You have not reached the debt limit established for your level of education, type of degree or program.
- You do not have sufficient financial resources to pursue your studies.

Note that people who are serving a prison sentence are not eligible for the Loans and Bursaries Program.

How to proceed

To find out if you qualify for financial assistance and the amount to which you may be entitled, you must proceed as follows:

1. Fill out all sections of the 2008-2009 Application for Financial Assistance and Schedule A—Student's Dependent Children, if applicable. For help in doing so, consult pages 4 to 13 of the Guide.
2. Make sure you provide all of the required documents indicated by the circled numbers on the forms. These numbers refer to specific documents listed on pages 14 to 20 of the Guide.

3. Have your father, mother, sponsor or spouse fill out the appropriate declaration form(s). Pages 21 to 22 of the Guide have been designed for your parents or sponsor. Pages 23 and 24 concern your spouse
4. Gather all of the documents you need to send:
  - Signed forms
  - Schedule A, if applicable
  - Supporting documents (Note: Your permanent code must appear on each document.)

Important!

You have up to 60 days following the end of your last month of recognized studies of the award year in question to submit your application for financial assistance. Please note that forms may not be faxed.

Financial assistance

Amount to which you are entitled

Once your application for financial assistance has been processed, AFE will send you a Financial Assistance Statement. The statement will tell you, among other things, the amount of financial assistance to which you are entitled and the breakdown of your installments. If, when completing your application for financial assistance, you indicated that you wish to receive your correspondence by e-mail, you will receive an e-mail asking you to check your Financial Assistance Statement on AFE's Web site at www.afe.gouv.qc.ca under On-Line Access to Your File!

Payment of your financial assistance

Are you filing your first application for financial assistance?

If you recently filed your first application for financial assistance and it has been approved, you must go to the financial assistance office of your educational institution several days before your first study period begins. The personnel there will provide you with an envelope that contains, among other things, your Guarantee Certificate.

You must submit that envelope to your financial institution as soon as possible so that it can send your banking information to Aide financière aux études. Subsequently, the financial assistance to which you are entitled will be deposited directly into your bank account.

Are you filing a subsequent application for financial assistance?

Upon filing your application, you will not have any other procedures to follow. If your application is approved, your assistance will be deposited directly into your bank account on the dates indicated in your Financial Assistance Statement.

However, if you interrupted your studies for more than six months since you last filed an application, you must follow the procedures for filing a first application.

Changes occurring during the year

Your financial resources

In September and January, you must confirm or update the income you reported in your application for financial assistance by filling out a Confirmation of Financial Resources form. You must fill out this form even if you have no changes to report with regard to your income. If you fail to do so, payment of the financial assistance to which you are entitled will be suspended. Please note that the amount of assistance awarded to you for the entire year will be reassessed at the end of the school year on the basis of the verification of information with Revenu Québec.

Your circumstances

Over the course of the year, you must inform AFE of any change with regard to the information you provided in your application. To report a change in your circumstances, you must fill out a Declaration of Change form. To access the on-line form, go to our Web site and click on On-Line Access to Your File, then click on Full-time forms. You can also obtain the form from the financial assistance office of your educational institution.

It must give the last and first names of both your father and mother. If you were born in Québec, a copy of the full-sized birth certificate issued by the Directeur de l'état civil is preferable, since it contains all the required information.

Copies of birth certificates issued before January 1, 1994, by an authority other than Directeur de l'état civil have legal standing and will also be accepted.

If you are not Canadian by birth

If you are a naturalized Canadian citizen, you must provide the documents listed in item 2 of the table on page 14.

If you are a permanent resident, you must provide the documents listed in item 3 of the table on page 15.

If you are a refugee or a protected person, you must provide the documents listed in item 4 of the table on page 15.

Permanent code assigned by the Ministère de l'Éducation, du Loisir et du Sport

Example of a permanent code: TREP11596701

Your permanent code appears on your secondary school or college transcript and on all correspondence sent by AFE. You must write it on all documents that you send to AFE. If you fail to do so or if you provide an incorrect code, your application will not be processed.

Important!

Some educational institutions assign each student a number they call a "permanent code" or "student number." This code or number should not be confused with the permanent code assigned by the Ministère de l'Éducation, du Loisir et du Sport.

If you don't have a permanent code

AFE can have one assigned to you if you send a legible document (e.g. your birth certificate) indicating your place of birth (city and country) and the last and first names of both your parents, even if they are deceased. Only original documents or copies certified as true before a commissioner of oaths will be accepted.

Social insurance number

If you don't have a Social Insurance Number

Go to the Service Canada Centre in your area to apply for a Social Insurance Number (SIN). You will receive your number the same day and your card in the days that follow.

To find out which documents are required to apply for a SIN, see the related section on Service Canada's Web site (www.servicecanada.gc.ca) or dial 1-800-808-6352 and select option 3.

If you apply by mail, you will receive your SIN within 3 to 4 weeks. In that case, don't wait to receive your SIN before applying. You can inform us of your SIN as soon as you receive it.

C. Mailing address

Full address and telephone number

Remember to enter your postal code and telephone number.

If your address or circumstances change during the year, you must notify AFE immediately to avoid delays in the payment of your financial assistance. Simply go to our Web site (www.afe.gouv.qc.ca) and fill out the Declaration of Change form under On-Line Access to Your File, Full-time forms.

E-mail address

You may choose to receive your correspondence via e-mail exclusively. To do so, just enter your e-mail address in the space provided for that purpose on the application form. It's a fast and easy way to check the status of your file! Instead of receiving an AFE notice in the mail, you will receive an e-mail message asking you to check the status of your file on our Web site.

If you choose this option, it is important that you notify AFE of any change in your e-mail address.

Section 2: Residence in Québec

A. Criteria for Québec resident status

Even if you answer NO to the first 3 questions of this section, AFE may still consider you a Québec resident. Read criteria 4 to 10 in the following table. You must complete subsection B if you are or were pursuing studies outside Québec, but were not enrolled in a Québec institution.*

See the table below for the applicable criterion and enter the number in the space provided on the form.

Prior to leaving to study outside Québec, remember to sign a power of attorney that will enable a member of your family or a friend to remit your Guarantee Certificate to your financial institution.

* If you are pursuing studies outside Québec under an exchange program administered by a Québec institution, you are not required to fill out this section.

Sections 3A and 3B: Educational Information

Which section should you fill out?

You must fill out section 3A if you are in one of the following situations:

- You are pursuing studies in a regular college or university program, e.g. your school year is divided into three terms—called study periods in the Guide and the forms—starting and ending on fixed dates.
- You are enrolled in a Télé-Université or Cégep@distance program.

You must fill out section 3B if you are in one of the following situations:

- You are pursuing studies in a college continuing education program leading to an Attestation of College Studies (ACS).
- You are pursuing studies in an intensive or accelerated program leading to a Diploma of College Studies (DCS).
- You are pursuing studies in a secondary school vocational training program leading to a Diploma of Vocational Studies (DVS) or an Attestation of Vocational Specialization (AVS).

Are you having trouble determining which section you need to fill out?

Consult the personnel of the financial assistance office of your educational institution or AFE.

General information regarding sections 3A and 3B

Reduction of the student contribution with regard to part-time studies

You may be entitled to a contribution reduction if you pursued part-time studies during the 4-month period preceding the start of your full-time studies in 2008-2009.

If you pursued part-time studies in more than one educational institution or program, you must attach a separate sheet of paper to your form with the name and code of each educational institution and the number of course hours (college) or credits (university) in which you were enrolled.

Note that if you are pursuing part-time studies, you could be deemed to be pursuing full-time studies and thus qualify under the Loans and Bursaries Program. To find out if you qualify, read the following criteria on full-time studies and studies deemed full-time.

Full-time studies and studies deemed full-time

To qualify for the Loans and Bursaries Program, you must be a full-time student or be deemed a full-time student. You must therefore be in one of the following situations.

You are a full-time student if

- the educational institution you are attending in Québec considers you as such. If you have any questions regarding this matter, consult the personnel of the financial assistance office of your educational institution.
- the educational institution you are attending outside Québec considers you as such. To find out which documents you need to provide in that situation, contact us or go to our Web site and click on During Your Studies, then on Studies Outside Québec.

You are deemed a full-time student if you are studying part-time, you are enrolled in at least 20 course hours per month and you meet one of the following four criteria:

- You are a single parent and
  - you are living with your child who is under age 12 as of September 30, 2008
  - or
  - you are living with your child who is under age 21 as of September 30, 2008, and your child is a student with a major functional disability or mental disorder.*
- You have a spouse and
  - you are living with your child who is under age 6 as of September 30, 2008
  - or
  - you are living with your child who is under age 21 as of September 30, 2008, and your child is a student with a major functional disability or mental disorder.*
- You are at least 20 weeks pregnant.
- You have a major functional disability.

If you and your spouse are students, only one of you can be deemed to be a full-time student during the award year in question.

Full-time practicum

Regular college or university program

AFE defines a practicum as a period of practical training in the workplace. You must indicate that you are doing a full-time practicum if you meet one of the following criteria:

- The practicum is compulsory and its duration corresponds to a study period (e.g. the fall of 2008, the winter of 2009, the summer of 2009). Generally, it lasts between 12 and 16 weeks. In addition, it is declared a "full-time practicum" by your educational institution and provides credits.
- If you are pursuing college studies, the practicum is part of a work-study program (WSP).
- If you are pursuing university studies, the practicum is part of a cooperative program.

If you are enrolled in a regular program and your practicum meets none of the previously listed requirements, check the "Full-time studies" box.

Secondary school vocational training program or college continuing education program

You may do a practicum as part of your secondary school vocational training program or your college continuing education program. If the practicum is compulsory and provides credits, be sure to include the duration of your practicum within that of your program.

For more information, consult the personnel of the financial assistance office of your educational institution.

Important!

If you are doing a compulsory practicum during a study period and you cannot live at your place of residence during that period, you must indicate that you are pursuing full-time studies instead of a full-time practicum. You must then send AFE a Student Practicums form, which is available on our Web site. AFE will recognize your practicum expenses.

* To inform us that you are the parent of a child with a major functional disability or mental disorder, you must send us the Declaration of Change form and one of the following documents:

- Medical Certificate—Major Functional Disabilities and Other Recognized Disabilities form (if your child suffers from a major functional disability)
- Certificate from a physician describing your child's illness (if he or she suffers from a mental disorder)

These forms are available on the Web site of Aide financière aux études.

Details Concerning Section 3A “Educational information – Regular College or University Program”

University education – Master's degree

Program with or without thesis

A thesis is a comprehensive written paper on a given problem. Its author must demonstrate that he or she can make a contribution to a specific field of study.

If you must write a thesis at the end of your master's degree program, check one of the boxes under "Program with thesis."

If, on the other hand, you must submit essays or complete directed studies, check one of the boxes under "Program without thesis."

University education – Master's and Doctoral degree

Writing of thesis/dissertation

Check the "Submission of thesis/dissertation" box if you meet the following requirements:

- You have completed the writing of your thesis or dissertation during the previous study period.
- You will be submitting your thesis or dissertation during the study period in question. This is the only step left for you to complete your program.
- You have to enroll for the study period in question in order to be able to submit your thesis or dissertation and you will be considered a full-time student by your educational institution.
- You will have to pay tuition fees or administrative fees to enroll.

Details Concerning Section 3B “Educational information – Secondary School Vocational Training Program or College Continuing Education Program”

Start date and end date of your program

Enter the start date and end date of your program, making sure to specify the year.

For example, if your program begins on August 13, 2008, and ends on October 5, 2009, you must specify those dates, even if they are not in the same award year.

If you change educational institution or program in 2008-2009, you will need to have the Notice of Change of Educational Institution or of Program form filled out by the person in charge of financial assistance at your educational institution.

If your program begins two months or less prior to the start of an award year and ends two months or less after the end of this award year, please read the following:

- If your program starts before July 1, 2008, you must fill out one application for financial assistance for 2008-2009 and another one for 2007-2008 to ensure that your financial needs for the summer of 2008 (i.e. from May 1 to August 31, 2008) are taken into account.
- If your program starts after June 30, 2008, you must fill out only one application for financial assistance for 2008-2009. Your financial needs for the summer of 2008 (i.e. from May 1 to August 31, 2008) will be taken into account.
- If your program ends before November 1, 2009, you must fill out only one application for financial assistance for 2008-2009. Your financial needs for the fall of 2009 (i.e. from September 1 to December 31, 2009) will be taken into account.
- If your program ends after October 31, 2009, you must fill out one application for financial assistance for 2008-2009 and another one for 2009-2010 to ensure that your financial needs for the fall of 2009 (i.e. from September 1 to December 31, 2009) are taken into account.

Would you like to obtain financial assistance to purchase computer equipment?

If you qualify under the Loans and Bursaries Program and you have never received financial assistance to purchase computer equipment, you can apply using the Application for the Recognition of Costs Related to the Purchase of Computer Equipment form. To obtain the form, go to our Web site and click Print forms or go to the financial assistance office of your educational institution.

Section 4: Student's Situation

The information you provide in this section will enable us to determine which of the following student categories you fall into:

- Student with a parental or sponsor contribution
- Student without a parental or sponsor contribution
- Student with a spousal contribution

AFE considers you a "self-supporting" student if you fall into one of the last two categories.

A. Marital status

De facto spouse

You may be considered a de facto spouse in accordance with one or more statutes. The answers you provide in this subsection and elsewhere in the form will enable us to determine if you are a de facto spouse according to AFE's criteria.

If you are cohabiting with a person without being married or in a civil union, and if you were never married or in a civil union, you must indicate that you are single.

If you are cohabiting without being married or in a civil union, but were previously married or in a civil union with another person from whom you are now separated, you must indicate that you are either divorced, legally separated or de facto separated, as the case may be. If the person to whom you were married or with whom you were in a civil union is deceased, you must indicate that you are widowed.

While the Civil Code of Québec does not grant de facto spouses legal standing, certain Québec statutes (e.g. the Taxation Act and the Act respecting financial assistance for education expenses) do recognize de facto spouses. However the criteria for recognition of de facto unions vary from one Act to another.

Civil union spouse

The civil union is a commitment by two persons who consent to live together. The civil union is contracted openly before a competent celebrant, as is marriage, and is witnessed through a civil union act.

Legally or de facto separated

De facto separated persons are still married or in a civil union, but they are separated from their spouses, without having obtained a court judgment granting them legal separation. As for legally separated persons, they were once married or in a civil union but have since obtained a court judgment granting them legal separation.

B. Major functional disability

If you suffer from a major functional disability, you could benefit from special measures under the Loans and Bursaries Program.

A major functional disability is a physical handicap that persistently limits a person's ability to carry out daily activities and limits that person's prospects for study and employment. The following disabilities are recognized: severe hearing impairment, severe visual impairment, motor impairment and organic impairment. The last two disabilities are recognized when they result in significant and persistent limitations. The disabilities recognized are defined in the Medical Certificate—Major Functional Disabilities and Other Recognized Disabilities form, which must be completed by your doctor and attached to your application for financial assistance.

If you need special equipment, special services or para-transit in order to be able to pursue your studies, you may qualify for the Allowance for Special Needs Program.

AFE will recognize your transportation costs if there is no overland transportation between your home and your educational institution or the organization hosting your practicum, provided they are both located in Québec. You must send us the Declaration of Change.

C. Self-supporting student (based on family situation)

Biological or adoptive parent

A biological parent is a person who has a child of his or her own (whether the child is alive or deceased). An adoptive parent is a person who has legally adopted a child (whether the child is alive or deceased).

Single parent

A single parent is a person who does not have a spouse and who has custody of at least one dependent child (his or her own) living with him or her. A person cannot be a single parent if he or she is not a biological or adoptive parent.

De facto spouse

AFE defines a de facto spouse as a person who is living in a de facto union with a partner (of the opposite sex or the same sex) without being married or in a civil union and who is living with at least one child (either his or her own or his or her spouse's).

D. Self-supporting student (based on studies)

Bachelor's degree earned outside Québec

If you obtained a bachelor's degree outside Québec, you must provide the appropriate supporting document (see situation 21, page 18). If you obtained your diploma outside Canada, you must provide a copy of the comparative evaluation for studies done outside Québec, issued by the Ministère de l'Immigration et des Communautés culturelles.

As regards studies pursued in Ontario, only the following diplomas are accepted:

- Honours bachelor's degree earned in Ontario
- Bachelor's degree with a specialization earned in Ontario.

Equivalent of 90 credits earned toward a single university degree outside Québec

You have earned the equivalent of 90 credits toward a single university degree if you meet one of the following requirements:

- You hold a Diploma of College Studies (DCS) and have studied at the university level outside Québec toward a single university degree for at least three years .
- You have not obtained a Diploma of College Studies (DCS) and have studied at the university level outside Québec toward a single university degree for at least four years.

Important!

A year is counted for each school year during which you pursued full-time studies at the university level, whether for one, two or three study periods (fall, winter, summer).

Are you recognized by AFE as having a major functional disability and have you been pursuing university studies in or outside Québec?

You need to have earned 45 credits (instead of 90 credits) to be recognized as self-supporting, based on your studies. You must therefore send us a Declaration of Change form and your most recent transcript.

E. Self-supporting student (based on time spent in the labour market)

Independent for 24 months

If you supported yourself for an accumulated total of 24 months without studying full-time, you could be recognized as a self-supporting student on the basis of the time you spent on the labour market.

You are considered independent in the following situations:

Situation 1

While living with your parents, sponsor or elsewhere:

- You held a paid job
or
- You received employment insurance benefits (including maternity and sickness benefits)
or
- You received income replacement benefits from the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail (CSST), the Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec (SAAQ) or another organization

Situation 2

While not living with your parents, you supported yourself in a manner that is not mentioned above. For more information on situations in which you could be considered independent, consult the personnel of the financial assistance office of your educational institution.

Examples

Situation 1

You held a paid job for nine months, received employment insurance benefits for six months and then held another paid job for six months. Subsequently, you received income replacement benefits from the CSST for three months. At no time during this entire period were you a full-time student.

Situation 2

You received employment-assistance (social assistance) benefits for 24 months while not living with your parents. In this case, you will be required to provide a copy of your lease(s) covering this 24-month period.

Situations 1 and 2 combined

You received employment-assistance benefits for eight months, then pursued full-time university studies. After one session, you withdrew from your studies and held a paid job for at least 16 months.

You must provide the required documents related to your situation in item 25 on page 19.

Income replacement benefits related to a job you have held are paid by the following organizations:

- Régie des rentes du Québec
- Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec
- Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail (benefits paid for an occupational injury or an occupational illness or to a crime victim)
- Human Resources and Social Development Canada (HRSDC);
- Service Canada (benefits from the Canada Pension Plan)
- Ministère de l'Immigration et des Communautés culturelles (benefits paid for acts of good citizenship)

F. Exceptional family situation

If none of the statements in subsections C, D and E apply to you, and if your situation with respect to your parents, sponsor or spouse is exceptional, we could take this into account when processing your application. In certain cases, the parental, sponsor's or spousal contribution will not be required. To confirm such circumstances, you must include the Declaration of Exceptional Family Situation form, duly completed by an authorized person, with your application for financial assistance.

Parents or sponsor living in a special care home

Check the box corresponding to this situation if both your father and your mother are living in a special care home. If this is the case, you must send a 2008-2009 Declaration of Father form and a 2008-2009 Declaration of Mother form. If only one of your parents is living in a special care home, you must fill out subsection G instead.

Parents or sponsor cannot be located

Check the box corresponding to this situation if both your father and your mother cannot be located. If only one of them cannot be located, you must fill out subsection G instead.

Living in a halfway house in 2008-2009

People who are serving a prison sentence are not eligible for the Loans and Bursaries Program. Only those who are living or who will be living in a halfway house in 2008-2009 can file an application for financial assistance.

Deteriorated family situation

Check the box corresponding to this situation if your family situation has deteriorated so much that you had to leave home. If this is the case, you must provide either or both of the 2008-2009 Declaration of Father or the 2008-2009 Declaration of Mother forms.

If you had to cease communication with one of your parents because of a serious problem (such as alcoholism, incest, violence or a disagreement), you must provide the form of the parent with whom you last resided and still communicate (i.e. the 2008-2009 Declaration of Father form or the 2008-2009 Declaration of Mother form).

If in doubt as to which form(s) you need to provide, please consult the personnel of the financial assistance office of your educational institution.

G. Student with a parental contribution

If you need to fill out this subsection, make sure that your father or your mother, or both (i.e. depending on your situation), send AFE their declaration form.

Permanent resident, naturalized Canadian citizen or refugee

If you have a sponsor and both your parents reside outside Canada at the beginning of the award year, you must have the 2008-2009 Declaration of Father form or the 2008-2009 Declaration of Mother form filled out by your sponsor. If you do not have a sponsor, check the appropriate box in subsection F.

Important!

The financial assistance to which you may be entitled will not be assessed until AFE has received the requested declaration form(s).

Section 5: Other Financial Support Programs

Emploi-Québec manpower training measure

You are not eligible for the Loans and Bursaries Program if you are participating in a manpower training measure offered by Emploi-Québec and if you are attending an educational institution under the authority of a school board or a public college.

You may, however, qualify for financial assistance under the Loans and Bursaries Program if you are participating in an Emploi-Québec manpower training measure and you are in one of the following situations:

- You are enrolled in a program offered at a private secondary school or college.
- You are enrolled in a program offered at a university.
- You are enrolled in a self-financed program offered at a CEGEP.

Please note that your educational expenses will be the only expenses recognized. Moreover, if your educational expenses are paid in full by Emploi-Québec, you will not be awarded any financial assistance.

Section 6: Financial Resources

A. Employment income and income considered employment income

You must report the income you have received or expect to receive between January 1 and December 31, 2008.

If you cannot provide the exact amount, give as accurate an estimate as possible. On several occasions during the school year, you will have the opportunity to confirm or update the income you reported.

Important!

If you fail to report an amount, you risk having to repay all or part of the financial assistance you received. The installments expected for the current award year or a subsequent year may serve to reimburse the amount owed.

Income related to an election

You must report the income you earned as:

- an election official or
- a candidate representative (provided you were appointed by proxy)

This includes income earned on the advanced polling day, the polling day and while participating in related training sessions.

Employment insurance benefits

Employment insurance benefits are paid by Human Resources and Social Development Canada (HRSDC). Until 1997, these benefits were known as "unemployment insurance benefits."

Important!

At the end of the school year, the income you report is systematically checked against the information on file at Revenu Québec. Under paragraph (o) of section 69.1 of the Act respecting the Ministère du Revenu, AFE does not need the person's consent in order to run such checks.

B. Other income

Orphan's pension, pension for a disabled person's child, surviving spouse's pension, death benefits in the form of pensions and pensions paid to the child of a crime victim

Indicate only the amount that you have received or will receive starting at age 18 since, with few exceptions, the amount awarded to you prior to age 18 is generally paid directly to the person who has responsibility for you. You are therefore not required to report it.

Support payments

You must enter the total support payments you will receive for yourself and, if applicable, your children. You must report the actual amount you will receive, taxable or not, even if it is not the same as the amount indicated in the court judgment. Do not report support payments received by either of your parents to provide for your needs.

Scholarships or bursaries

You must enter the total amount of any scholarships or bursaries you will receive in 2008 even if they total less than $5000.

You must exclude bursaries received under the Loans and Bursaries Program and the Explore Program. Please note that the portion, if any, financed by the Canada Millennium Scholarship Foundation is also excluded. Other scholarships or bursaries awarded by the Foundation, however, are not excluded.

You must also report bursaries awarded by AFE to elected executive officers of provincial student associations.

The following should not be reported:

- Amounts paid by the Régie des rentes du Québec (RRQ) as part of its child assistance measure (provincial family allowances)
- Canada Child Tax Benefit
- Universal Child Care Benefit
- Employment-assistance benefits (social assistance);
- Amounts paid under a registered education savings plan (RESP)
- Amounts received from the Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec (SAAQ) or the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail (CSST) as compensation, for example, for the loss of a limb or to reimburse certain expenses (physiotherapy, orthopedic devices, etc.)
- Withdrawals from a pension plan (RRSP, RRSF, RRE-GOP, etc.)
- Benefits from a strike fund
- Income from rental units
- Lottery winnings

C. Employment prior to start of full-time studies

If you were employed by more than one employer or self-employed with more than one client while living elsewhere than with your parents, indicate the name of one employer or client only and your workplace address.

Section 7: Signature

Your application for financial assistance will be processed only if it is signed. If you do not sign your application form, it will be returned to you by mail and the processing of your file will be delayed.

The amount of financial assistance awarded to you may be claimed if you make any false statements. Furthermore, if you fail to comply with an audit request within the specified time, your financial assistance for the current year may be cancelled and further assistance denied.

Important!

Each year, AFE examines files. You should be prepared to provide supporting documents to justify all the information in the application form, Schedule A and supporting or other documents.

Required Documents (Student)

You must submit the original of the application for financial assistance, Schedule A and any other AFE form that you are asked to fill out. As regards other required documents, copies will be accepted in most cases. Please note that you do not have to resubmit documents supplied with a previous application if the information contained in these documents is still up-to-date.
